EXPLORE EUGENE DURING THE SUNNY SEASON

Tom Malone

There's nothing quite like spring and summer in Eugene. The sun finally emerges from behind the clouds and gives us opportunities to play outside. Lush greenery and vibrant flowers fill our strolls through town. And, most importantly, people are out and about, giving us plenty of social avenues.

During spring and into summer, Eugene is full of street fairs and outdoor festivals designed to bring people together and experience Eugene's unique culture. Artists, food trucks, and small businesses gather together at these events to show off their products; some even include free samples. Don't miss the Eugene Saturday Market, an event that will immerse any visitor in true Eugene culture.

Restaurants will often open their outdoor seating areas to give people a new dining experience that is so often closed to Oregonians. Explore some of Eugene's coolest restaurants and bask in the enjoyment of the sunshine. Eat some exquisite cafe-style food at Café 440, or try some hearty Mexican food at Chapala. Or, grab some Track Town Pizza to go, and make any park your own outdoor eatery.

Famous for its craft beer, Eugene breweries always create new flavors to match the season. Moving into summer, expect both major and up-and-coming breweries to experiment with warm-weather styles. Visit some Eugene staple breweries, like Falling Sky Brewing and Hop Valley. Or, journey a little ways into the country to taste some farm-fresh beer at Agrarian Ales Brewing Co. If you can't decide which brewery you want to explore, visit a taphouse and see what brewery selections they feature.

The Willamette Valley's famous wineries open up their properties when the sun comes out as well. Spend a sunny afternoon tasting Eugene's tradition Pinot Noirs or their summertime experiments while surrounded by Oregon's natural beauty. Hayworth Estate Wines, J. Scott Cellars, and Territorial Vineyards, Capitello, and Eugene Wine Cellars offer some trendy tasting rooms within close proximity, while King Estate provides an expansive vineyard environment. Visit any (or all) of the Eugene area vineyards and sample Oregon fame.

Spend a sunny Oregon morning sitting outside with a freshly brewed coffee or tea at one of Eugene quaint cafes. Sit at a table along a bustling sidewalk and watch the world go by in total relaxation.

Eugene features plenty of inexpensive-yet-exciting events that will provide opportunities to socialize and experience the city's culture. University of Oregon spring sports come into full swing. Catch a track event at the historic Hayward Field, a baseball game at PK Park, a softball game right on campus, or a lacrosse game near Autzen Stadium.

The sun tends to draw summertime concerts and live events. Matthew Knight Arena brings some major headliners, while venues like McDonald Theatre and WOW Hall provide intimate atmospheres. For more live performances, check out theater venues, like Rose Children's Theater.

On a sunny Eugene day, it can be hard to stay inside. Luckily, the Eugene area contains some incredible natural adventure spots. Spend a few hours hiking up Spencer's Butte or Mount Pisgah, which both stand a short drive away from the University of Oregon campus. Or, stroll along the Willamette River and enjoy the lush Oregon vegetation. The Eugene area features plenty of waterfall hikes as well. Venture to Wildwood Falls and have a picnic, or trek through the forests around Oakridge to check out a series of small waterfalls and lakes in the Willamette National Forest.

Eugene is also one of the most cycling friendly cities in the country. Experience the city's miles and miles of cycling trails that bring riders along scenic rivers and through dense forests. Oakridge features some of Oregon's most adventurous mountain biking terrain. Life Cycle Bike Shop provides amateur and avid cyclists and mountain bikers with gear and information for a successful adventure.

Spring and summer in Eugene can provide some of the most memorable experiences of the entire year.

Get outside and explore all of the opportunities that the city and the University of Oregon campus provide. Make this sunny season its own adventure!

Latin Kitchen

Throughout our married life, Baldo and I have always found joy in serving others, especially preparing food and sharing it with those we love. This is a way for us to show our appreciation and care. Serving food to others has been part of our life and service, yet we never dreamed of having a restaurant open to the public. This opportunity came unexpectedly. After serving as missionaries in Mexico City for five years, we came back to Eugene in the middle of the recession. Baldo's former company had closed and there was little employment opportunity. Eventually, I took a couple of part time jobs, while Baldo worked for a maintenance company and offered yard services. During one of his maintenance jobs, he fell off the roof and shattered his heel, which left him unable to work. While he stayed home, he polished his cooking abilities and, in the process, discovered his passion for cooking.

Every item in the menu is hand-picked by Baldo and has been developed to perfection to match his demanding taste. Every dish has its history in Baldo's book of cooking and he is always bringing in new dishes from different countries. We continue to serve traditional authentic food from Latin American countries like Peru, Argentina, and Mexico.

Think Your Way Out

I am a 36-year-old stay-at-home dad/small business owner. My wife is an ICU nurse and we have been together for over seven years. I graduated from the University of Oregon in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance.

I first experienced an escape room in 2015 in Portland with my in-laws. I was so excited by the whole experience that I knew I needed to create one of my own. I wanted to give people what I felt while bringing them closer together with the people around them. It feels like we have too much disconnect in our lives. We need more positive experiences that will pull us back together. So, after nine months of convincing my wife and crafting a business plan, she finally agreed to let me try.

We started in 2016 as an 8x8 pop-up booth at the Eugene Saturday Market to test-run our escape room in the Eugene/Springfield area. After the summer was over, we secured funding and started looking for a permanent location. We found the Meridian Building on the corner of 18th and Willamette. We knew it was the right fit for us, so we moved in and started construction in the summer of 2017. By September of 2017, we opened our doors to the public with our first experience: "The Albino Elephant". Now, we have two experiences for people to enjoy: "The Albino Elephant" and "Mayhem on the Menu."

HEALTH & FITNESS

Mild hyperbaric therapy has been shown to greatly reduce healing time and improve numerous medical conditions. Hyperbarics is a comfortable and relaxing way to treat your entire body with Oxygen.

You lay in a chamber on a comfortable mattress with pillows and blankets. The chamber will put you under a little bit of pressure while you breathe oxygen. At the same time the chamber will expand to 32 inches in circumference and 7½ feet long. This small amount of pressure is enough to allow the Oxygen to dissolve into the liquids of your blood. This process allows up to 10 times the Oxygen into your bloodstream to reach 5 times farther, allowing the Oxygen to get to the cells that need it. Oxygen is an anti-inflammatory and detoxifier. Many conditions are related to inflammation and toxin build-up. There is no telling how many conditions can benefit from improved oxygenation and circulation!

Among the many conditions Oxygen treats include, but are not limited to:

Sleep problems, anxiety, arthritis,
Traumatic Brain Injury, and Autism.

Through increased oxygen and improved blood flow, the body is able to build new blood vessels, rebuild cells, and repair damaged tissues. When provided with the tools our bodies need, we can better achieve the health goals that we set for ourselves. Many patients experience a more youthful appearance with repeated treatments, as well as increased stamina, and a sense of well-being. Athletes have noticed improved performance and students have experienced better focus and recall. Come in for a “dive” and build a healthier you!

BETWEEN FARM AND TABLE

Blake Henning

Ever wonder how local restaurants are able to buy the freshest ingredients, or how farms supply their produce all over the state? Many use produce suppliers to work between farms and stores. The only produce supplier in the Eugene, Springfield area is Emerald Fruit and Produce Co.

Since 1962, Emerald Fruit and Produce Co. has been providing farm fresh produce to the local community. They're responsible for buying fresh produce from farmers and then fulfill orders to local restaurants, schools, hospitals, caterers and more.

Kyle Herbert, son of the owner Denis Herbert, said "We do same day deliveries here. A lot of places don't do that, you've got to call the day before. If a restaurant calls at nine in the morning, we can have their stuff to them by noon."

The process of buying and selling fresh produce is a balancing act. Emerald Fruit and Produce Co. has to estimate the amount of produce they will need to purchase and supply to local businesses. If they have too much of a product it may go bad; too little and they will run out.

"It's such a fast-paced thing," Kyle said. "You've got to buy day to day. You know, you can't buy something for a month's worth because it will go bad on you."

Emerald Fruit and Produce Co. has been a family owned business since it opened in the early 1960s. It is well-established in the food service industry as a produce supplier that tries to provide the freshest ingredients for the local community. So ask your local businesses where they get their produce; if it's Emerald Fruit and Produce Co., you'll know that it's fresh.

ALWAYS IN SEASON

Written By: Blake Henning

For over 30 years, The Shamrock Flowers and Gifts has created beautiful floral arrangements to suit large events and personal moments. They also provide a variety of gifts and seasonal décor.

The owner of The Shamrock, Scott Sunderland, said “People come here because they know we’re going to do a beautiful arrangement, we stand behind our products, and the quality of flowers will be premium.”

Most of The Shamrock’s fresh flowers are grown in South America and flown up to the States. Their floral designers are always keeping up on new trends in the flower industry. They can provide special arrangements for seasonal events, like wreaths during the holiday season and corsages/boutonnière for spring prom; they even provide flower arrangements for private events like weddings. The Shamrock is accessible online through their website and also delivers, but you’ll want to come down to The Shamrock for more than just flowers. People stop by for the atmosphere.

“People come in here because they like to feel the season,” Sunderland said.

The Shamrock is decorated to fit each season with ever-changing gifts, arrangements, colors and smells. Unique seasonal gifts make it a perfect place to shop for holidays or find themed presents. The Shamrock carries a variety of products from fashionable jewelry to scented candles and interior décor. The store is vibrantly colored, and dedicated staff are always there to help you find what you’re looking for.

Sunderland said that he has customers who have been returning for the last 30 years and has seen generations of families that still come through The Shamrock’s doors. Sunderland is dedicated to his customers and wants everyone’s experience to be a positive one.

Sunderland said, “We really are here because of our customers. I mean that’s what keeps us going and they totally appreciate us too.”
